

AL BAKH

C O M P A N Y

A
L
B
A
K
H

ABOUT AL BAKH COMPANY

Albakh Company is one of the leaders in the production and supply of building stones in the market, with more than two decades of experience in this field. It is recognized as one of the reliable and trusted sources for providing high-quality stones for various construction projects. Albakh offers a wide range of different types of stones, including marble, granite, travertine, and others, successfully meeting the diverse needs of its customers both nationally and internationally. The prominent features of Albakh Company include the high quality and excellent durability of the stones it offers. The stones produced by this company are selected from the best quarries and are delivered to customers using the latest global technologies. With a wide variety of products, professional after-sales services, and competitive prices, choosing Albakh Company for building stone supply becomes not just a purchase but a strategic partnership in construction projects.

Products

Albakh Company produces various types of building and façade stones and proudly offers a collection of its best and highest-quality products:

Features:

Shiny and beautiful surface.

High color variety, usually with natural veins.

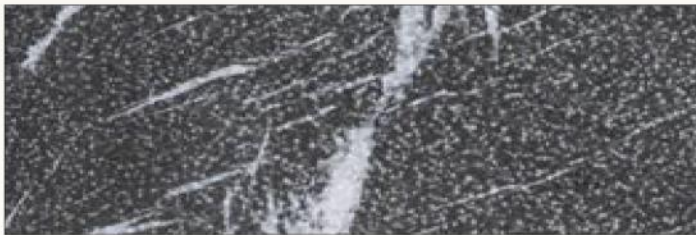

Lower density compared to granite.

Applications:

Interior walls, flooring, stairs, and kitchen countertops.

Advantages:

Easy to shape and polish.

Marble Stone

Features:

High hardness and long durability.

Various natural veins and patterns.

Applications:

Flooring, walls, kitchen countertops, and building facades.

Advantages:

Scratch and heat resistant.

Granite Stone

Features:

Beautiful holes and veins.

Lighter than granite and marble.

Advantages:

Good permeability and suitable for humid areas.

Applications:

Exterior facades, flooring, and walls.

Customer Services

Albakh 's experienced and expert team offers a variety of services to customers, including advice on choosing the appropriate type of stone, installation services, and after-sales support. The team is ready to answer customer inquiries and provide necessary guidance.

Projects

Albakh Company has collaborated on various construction, commercial, and residential projects, and its portfolio includes office buildings, hotels, shopping centers, and luxury villas. By providing high-quality products, this company has played an Given the growing construction industry in the country, it is expected that this company will continue to expand its activities and gain a larger share of the market.

AL BAKH

C O M P A N Y

➤ +98 9161314136

